Chapter 1 by Pheonix Rose

The eyes of the angels watch ever move you do. Every move you take they see, they don't trust her, born between Heven and Hell. you are the daughter of Lucifer, A archangel of heaven just born. You have no name and no age and no memories of who or what you are. Your the angel of the Phoenix of Blue flames and gold.

Red hair and black pure eyes with no whites. Black Tattoos cover your body as a sigh of the daughter you are. You do not get burned by the gold flames that once should burn everything out of you, but your soul is angelic like mothers. You tend to prefer your father while your mother keeps you away from him thinking your a abomination. You know though if the rules of heaven didn't say she kept you, you would have left to be with the father who loves you. Swinging you red soft as silk hair you saw the phoenix markings on your arm running down your neck and ending at your chest area. You run the opposite hand over your other arm making the marking glow and bringing the phoenix suddenly at your side.

You liked the Phoenix knowing it was one thing other then your eyes that God couldn't take away from you. It was the only way for you to know he was okay and well. Your mom was the
